

2008 YOUNG AND EMERGING PROFESSIONAL AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE

Purpose: To honor young and emerging professionals in the Fresno Chapter area who have significantly impacted the profession or their community.

The awards are intended to recognize the diverse contributions of young and emerging professionals at a diverse range of levels, whether it's in a professional or personal capacity, whether the professional is paid or unpaid and whether the nominee is inspired or inspiring. These awards also acknowledge and promote the enormous strides made by our young and emerging professionals to be viewed as leaders in their professional competency and their integrity by their clients, employers, the public and their government officials.

Criteria: The nominee must be a CalCPA member.

Individuals nominated may be chosen from any facet of the accounting profession. The nominee may be a practicing accountant in private, public, or government accounting.

The nominee should be an individual who has 1-5 years of work experience and has made an immediate or sustained contribution to their firm, company or community. The nominee is not required to be licensed.
